The world we view as so complex is really just the work of Gods fingers. There were no massive machines, no grandiose architectural designs. The universe is like a picture painted by God or a fabric knitted by God. One Old Testament image is God creating humans by knitting them in the womb of our mother. A creation account which appears in the book of Genesis says: The Lord God created man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being. God uses clay of the earth to create us. We are not simply that clay, we are formed with the very breath of God. We are like God. We are also like the rest of creation formed out of the clay of the earth. God admonishes us: cultivate and care for his creation. It is Gods creation not ours. Adam was tempted to eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil: The moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like the gods who know what is good and what is bad. Original sin was not an act of disobedience to God or a lack of faith. We do not believe that we are like God. We have to DO something to become like God. Original sin is a lack of faith in who we are, a failure to believe that everything (including us) is good. Letters From God are responses from God to people who are suffering from a series of emotions and actions which separate us from God. We forget we are part...
