Printed boldly on the back of United States currency is the motto In God We Trust. We have seen it so often that it may have lost its meaning to us. But found in these words is the secret to national and personal greatness. Webster's Dictionary defines the word trust as a firm belief or confidence in the honesty, integrity, reliability and justice of another person or thing. When our founding fathers signed their names to the Declaration of Independence, they believed that God was the only sure foundation upon which to build a nation that would endure. These men knew that this unique experiment in freedom would only stand the test of time by God's grace. George Washington stated it simply, It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible. Reliance upon God was deeply rooted in our country's important documents and institutions from the beginning. But today confidence in God and His Word is no longer the foundation of society. In our schools the God of Creation has been replaced by...
