And not one of them is sit ! This book focuses on building a relationship with your puppy that is based on cooperation, communication and trust, while giving you the tools that will enable you to teach your pup anything, any time, for the rest of his life. Learn how dogs think, and how to prevent house-training accidents. Learn what dogs respect, and how to teach him to walk on leash without pulling. Learn why puppies play, and how to teach him to come every single time he 's called. Using a training clicker and positive reinforcement, you will teach your puppy to trust, respect, rely upon and understand you. and you will learn the same things from him! Filled with bonus resources like developmental, socialization and training schedules, as well as step-by-step instructions for preventing and solving common puppy problems, this entertaining, informative book may well be the last puppy training book you will ever need. Don t bring Puppy home without it!.
