

Mugged by Reality: The Liberation of Iraq and the Failure of Good Intentions (Hardback)

By John Agresto

Encounter Books, USA, United States, 2007. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. John Agresto spent nine months in Iraq--from September 2003 to June 2004--working under Ambassador Paul Bremer as senior adviser to the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research. His daunting task was to assist Iraqis in rebuilding their once distinguished system of colleges, universities, and vocational schools. As he left Iraq, Agresto was asked by the Pentagon to write a few paragraphs about the lessons learned during his time there. Those paragraphs were never written, but a book was born instead. Mugged by Reality is partly the memoir of an American civilian and educator trying to help a devastated country revive its educational institutions. It is also a compendium of the successes and failures that followed in the wake of Iraq's liberation. Many books discuss what the United States and its allies did or didn't do, making our mistakes look simple in hindsight: we disbanded the army, we didn't have enough troops, we de-Baathified too thoroughly. If only we had done things differently, they say. But the sober truth is that we have been thwarted not simply...
