Excerpt: . . . on which Leopold has accepted, and that you are relieved from your apprehensions that anything dishonourable would be acquiesced in. The Articles appear to me just for both parties, and if peace can be maintained on this ground, it surely is more than could have been expected when we undertook the Government. I am sorry to hear that Matuscewitz has been declaiming violently against your word contest. Nothing, it seems, but the word revolt could have satisfied him. Not being able to go out of the house, I have not seen Don Pedro. I hear he means to bring the young Queen here. What will the Duke of Wellington and Lord Aberdeen say to this if it should happen You could not fail to observe the anxiety shown by both to support Don Miguel. It is an age since I saw you, and I cannot write as I should talk to you. Let me know when you are likely to be in town, and, if possible, I will call on you. Are you to be at the concert on Wednesday I never was at so dull a dinner as yesterday at Northumberland House. Nobody but Wynns, and Clives, and Amhersts. In short, not a soul to speak to, just when I was hoping to gather up something interesting to tell you to-day. So now I have to count on something from you. You will tell me how you are, for I am really more...
