Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This booklet is one of a series commenting on Paul s authenticated Epistles. It is framed within radical Christian thinking exemplified by the likes of Huss and the Moravians, Arminius and the Dutch Collegiants, Spinoza and the Quakers, for example. While not scholarly, neither are the commentaries light reading. They are thoughtful elucidations suited to our times. The few authenticated Epistles written by Paul are not accounts of historical events. They are not philosophical treatises. Paul s letters are explications of his encounter with reality, in particular the reality of personal salvation and freedom in being or existing of and from God indwelling according to Christ after the spirit. Given Paul s lifelong commitment to the things of God and given his more than twenty years of challenging ministry to Christian communities, we are left with only a meagre remnant of his written work. In these few authenticated letters, Paul s experience, teaching and thinking is described. The brief writings do not tell about the full scope of Paul s work with Christian communities, but they do provide a presentation of and allow us an understanding of his core mission and purpose. The Spirit of God has a singular message regarding personal existence and about our ultimate existential meaning, significance and purpose. This message is comprehended by those who are of and from God. God indwelling our person words this gospel in Christ-specific terms, in the forming of our spiritual person. God indwelling according to Christ after the spirit forms and shapes our spirit, heart, and mind, so that we personally put on Christ in our conforming to Christ s likeness. The gospel message is unchanging and not...
